Dear Fellow Martial Artists and Arnold Battle of Columbus Supporters,

It is hard to believe that it has been 44 years since the first Battle of Columbus in 1976. It has been my privilege and honor to be your host, and I sincerely appreciate your support and encouragement. Founding a multidisciplinary championship to embrace the diversity of all martial arts in the most positive way has been one of my most treasured achievements. I could not have done it without you.

The Arnold Battle of Columbus was created to offer an opportunity for all martial arts practitioners around the world to compete in a variety of martial arts events and to explore, test, and share the skills that they diligently and patiently developed. The Arnold Battle of Columbus also offers a chance to meet martial arts leaders from many styles and disciplines who share common goals in martial arts philosophy, principles, and traditions.

As is our custom, we will be recognizing the great martial arts pioneers and their successors for their contributions to the development of the world of Martial Arts for Truth, Goodness, and Beauty with the Bruce Lee & Arnold Legends of Martial Arts Hall of Honor Induction Ceremony. The induction ceremony will take place on Friday, March 6, 2020, at Oriental Martial Arts College.

I am excited to again host one of the most prestigious open martial arts events in the U.S. partnering with the Arnold Sports Festival, "One of the Largest Sports Events in the World". This type of monumental event wouldn't be possible without the enthusiastic support from every single one of you. Let us enjoy the true diversity of the martial arts, meet mighty Arnold and become a part of history.

Sincerely in the spirit of martial arts,

Battle of Columbus Volunteer Information

What to bring/not bring:

There is not a lot of space to store your belongings and the space available is not monitored. Bring a water bottle, snacks, and a bag of personal belongings if you like, but please do not bring big purses, electronics, etc.

What to eat:

BOC will provide lunch, water, and snacks to BOC volunteers and there are usually a couple of food vendors at the event. You are welcome to bring your own food.

What to wear:

Wear dark colored pants and comfortable shoes. Depending on your time commitment, you may receive a volunteer t-shirt at the event. The building is often cool in the morning and warm in the afternoon. If you are sensitive to temperature changes it is a good idea to dress in layers.

When to arrive:

You must check in with the volunteer coordinator 15 minutes prior to your scheduled shift. Remember to leave plenty of time to get to the building and find a parking spot. The Expo Center hosts many events during the Arnold Sports Festival and there may be a delay getting off of the interstate and into the parking area.

Parking:

Everyone must pay to park at the fairgrounds. Parking at the Expo center is $10 for a one-time entry and $24 for a weekend pass.

Cell Phones:

Please put all cell phones on vibrate and refrain from making or receiving calls or texting while working in a ring.

Battle of Columbus Terminology

Forms:

Taekwondo Sport Poomsae - Only Taekwondo (Also known as Kukkiwon Poomsae)

Sport Poomsae is the World Taekwondo Federation/Kukkiwon compulsory poomsae used at sanctioned national and international competitions such as USAT Nationals and the World Taekwondo Poomsae Championships. Competitors must perform the designated form(s) for their age and rank group randomly determined by the Tournament Official.

- Compulsory/designated poomsae will be selected and published online one week prior to the competition date. (See attached lists of Compulsory Poomsae for color and black belts.)
- Sport Poomsae scoring is very specific and differs from the scoring of Open/Creative Poomsae.

Open Style/Creative Poomsae – All disciplines

In Open Style/Creative poomsae, a competitor may perform any form including "traditional" forms such as Palgwe, Chang Hon, Kee Cho, Pal Chi, school specific forms, or freestyle forms composed by the competitor. No weapons, breaking, or props may be used. Music may be used, but the competitor is responsible for their own sound system.

Sparring:

Olympic Style Sparring – Olympic style sparring is conducted as a continuous match of a set period of time. The match clock is not stopped for point scoring, only for penalties or injuries.

Point Sparring – Point style matches are conducted for a set period of time but the match is stopped after each point is scored and the competitors return to the center to continue the match. Karate, Tang Soo Do, and Gumdo use point style sparring as does ITF/ATA taekwondo schools.

Arnis (stick fighting) and Sanshou use an entirely different system of scoring.

Jujitsu Gi and No-Gi Grappling – Jujitsu competitions are divided into Gi (uniformed) and No-Gi (shorts and shirt) grappling competitions. In Gi grappling, competitors must wear a traditional heavy cotton or woolen uniform (similar to a traditional style Karate uniform). In No-Gi grappling, competitors wear more common "western" style shorts and shirts.

Breaking:

Creative Breaking – Competitors have three minutes to set-up, break up to 10 boards, and clean-up broken boards. Competitors may use up to 10 boards and as many techniques as they would like within the time allowed. Competitors are responsible for securing board holders prior to their performance.

Distance Breaking – Competitors break a board with a flying side kick. Each round gets progressively longer in distance. Competitors have up to three chances each round to break their board using proper technique. Jumps must start before “foul” line and the kick must be completed with both feet off the ground.

Power Breaking (Hand or Elbow) – Competitors place boards and spacers on a stand and break as many as possible with one strike.

Results Envelope

It is important to fill out as much information as you have in order to ensure accurate results reporting after the event.

Circle or check all criteria that apply to the division. Write in any info that may not be listed on the envelope, such as an age group.

Make sure first and last names for all three winners are correct on the front of the envelope.

Place all score sheets and competitor tickets in the envelope for each division.

Give the envelope to the winner to be presented at the awards table. All three winners will go together to get medals.

Please announce all winners of every division before sending to the awards table!

Weigh-in Procedures

1. Black Belt Competitors are REQUIRED to weigh-in prior to the beginning of competition.
2. Competitors can check their weight before the official weigh-in on a "test scale."
  - a. A competitor may change her/his weight class prior to stepping onto the official scale.
  - b. Once the competitor steps onto the official scale, s/he may not change her/his weight division. Note: BOC officials may combine or separate divisions based on the number of competitors.
3. Competitors are allowed up to two (2) chances to make weight within the given weigh-in time period. They may strip down to their underwear - brassieres are also required for women. UNDER NO CIRCUMSTANCE IS A COMPETITOR TO WEIGH-IN NUDE. Because a competitor may weigh-in in such a state of undress:
  - . The weigh-in must be conducted in a private area.
  - a. The official in charge of that particular weigh-in must be of the same gender as the competitor.
4. The official unit of measure shall be the Kilogram (Kg).
5. Tournament officials are responsible to maintain the privacy and modesty of the competitor.

4. HALL OF HONOR INDUCTIONS AND AWARDS:

Definitions, Nomination, and Selection Guidelines are Online

www.ArnoldBoc.com

To be eligible, a candidate's record must be free from any record of punishment by any community or organization due to misconduct or conviction of a crime.

1) THE BRUCE LEE MARTIAL ARTS LEGEND HALL OF HONOR Background:

Bruce Lee's daughter, Shannon, attended the 2002 Arnold Battle of Columbus and accepted The first Hall of Honor Induction Award on behalf of her father, the great Bruce Lee.

Bruce Lee promoted the modern concept of martial arts to the world through his many movie roles. He was born on November 27, 1940, in Hong Kong, was a graduate of Washington State University, and starred in many television and film productions including The Green Hornet and Enter the Dragon. He was an ardent student of Wing Chun Kung Fu and developed and successfully spread his own style, Jeet Kune Do. Bruce Lee passed away in 1973 at the age of 33. He left behind a legacy to be admired and honored.

With his superb talent in martial arts and in action movies, he was able to revolutionize Asian culture, perceptions of the martial arts, and perceptions of Asian people in the western hemisphere forever. He is one of the only movie stars who became more famous after his death. His legacy will never die.

2) THE ARNOLD BOC MARTIAL ARTS LEGEND HALL OF HONOR:

The Battle of Columbus was founded in 1976 by SGM Joon P. Choi with the idea of promoting true diversity in the martial arts community. The Battle of Columbus offered various martial arts disciplines and their students the opportunity to explore their skills and to develop a family-like atmosphere among different martial arts styles.

In 2001, the Battle of Columbus joined with the Arnold Sports Festival as partners and grew to over 4,000 athletes and over 10,000 spectators.

In 2015, in conjunction with The Bruce Lee and Martial Arts Hall of Honor Induction, SGM Choi began the tradition to honor masters, competitors, coaches, promoters, and volunteers who have dedicated more than 10 years of service to develop the Arnold Battle of Columbus into a unique martial arts championship.

3) THE BRUCE LEE HALL of HONOR Martial Arts Legends

The Bruce Lee and Legends of Martial Arts Hall of Honor is designed to honor pioneers, grandmasters, masters, instructors, and all other martial arts leaders and supporters who have a proven record of pioneering, developing, and promoting the various oriental martial arts such as Taekwondo, Karate, Kungfu/Wushu, Taichi, Hapkido, Aikido, Judo, Gumdo/Kendo, Jujitsu/Grappling, Silat, Sambo/Sombo, Muay Thai and Kimoodo Healing arts to their region, state, nation, and the world from the 1940s to the present day.

The Bruce Lee Legends of Martial Arts Hall of Honor Induction does not only recognize first generation leaders but also 2nd and 3rd generation martial arts leaders who by their own achievement have carried on the spirit of martial arts taught by their first generation masters to build a lasting legacy and honorable lineage for the coming generations.

4) HALL OF HONOR - DISCIPLINES, CATEGORIES, SELECTION Process:

bruce lee foundation

"preserving and perpetuating the art, philosophy, life and legacy of Bruce Lee for generations to come."

The Bruce Lee Foundation is a resource for those seeking authentic information about Bruce Lee and his teachings. We endeavor to deliver Bruce Lee's philosophical message and life example to the public through a number of different venues. The Foundation wishes to reach out, not only to martial artists and Bruce Lee fans, but also to those who are not yet acquainted with the true Bruce Lee, his struggles, his triumphs and his life methodology.

Objectives of the Bruce Lee Foundation:

- Award educational scholarships
- Create a permanent Bruce Lee Museum
- Create educational materials
- Preserve Bruce's art of Jun Fan Jeet Kune Do®

It has been the experience of Bruce Lee's family and friends that his search for a better life has had a tremendous influence on many people the world over.

To find out more about Bruce Lee and Jun Fan Jeet Kune Do® or to apply for a scholarship, go to www.bruceleefoundation.com (currently under construction).

A Brief History Of The Bruce Lee Collection

Supreme Grand Master Joon P. Choi was hosting the World Martial Arts Expo and Asian Culture Fair in the late 1990s when he received a phone call from Robert Blakeman, who was a student of his in the early 1970s. During their conversation, Blakeman revealed that he had been collecting memorabilia on Bruce Lee for a long time, including several pictures, posters, books, videos and personal writings from the late film star.

GM Choi was intrigued and asked Blakeman to participate in his event and display some of the collection. Blakeman did so for two years. But with the dawn of a new millennium, Blakeman became ill and wasn't heard from. GM Choi investigated and found out that Blakeman had passed away on July 11, 2001. He was 45.

Then Blakeman's partner, Mickey Prince, agreed to display the collection at GM Choi's event. But that arrangement took place for only one year. Prince died January 26, 2002. He was 37. However, it didn't take long to determine what was to become of the collection. Blakeman and Prince had prepared a will with instructions to turn the collection over to GM Choi, who was asked to exhibit it in an effort to preserve the movie star's memories.

GM Choi has ensured that the collection has been displayed at several events, staffed by students who eagerly explain its journey and significance. The collection has more than 5,000 pieces and is recognized as one of the largest in the world. The pieces are housed at the headquarters of the Oriental Martial Arts College and the alliance, 1349 Brice Road in Reynoldsburg, Ohio, a suburb of Columbus. The general public is invited to view the collection. Admission is free, although donations are accepted.

In 2004, GM Choi and organizers for his annual Battle of Columbus World Martial Arts Games invited Bruce Lee's daughter, Shannon, to receive an award on the legend's behalf. Ted Wong, a top student of Bruce Lee's, also attended the ceremony. Today, GM Choi and the Bruce Lee Collection Committee are seeking to build a Legends of Martial Arts Hall of Fame. No time line has been set for the project, but organizers expect that Blakeman's collection will be the centerpiece.
